N. B. I would have inſerted the Diſtempers whereof the above Perſons have died, (after the Example of the London Clerks) had it been in my Power. And becauſe there have been many falſe Reports about the Country (and even in Town) concerning the Small Pox, (to the great prejudice of the Inhabitants) I have taken a particular care to keep an Account of all that have died of that Diſtemper in this Pariſh, (which Pariſh I preſume is near half the Town of Northampton.) And I aſſert that no more than Twelve Perſons have died of the ſaid Diſtemper within this Pariſh this Year, and Eleven of them were Children under Ten Years of Age.
